[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., January 23 .- In the fastest contest seen on the Fayerweather Gymnasium Court this season. Virginia's basketers defeated the Elon College quint to-night 47

The game was not nearly as ohe-sided as the score would indicate. The Carolinians played a sensational passing game in the second half, and gave the Virginians all the work they were looking for. In this period McLean landed four pretty field goals.

Pettway again starred for the Orange and Blue, Besides tossing nine goals from the court, he rang up eleven points from the foul line. Schneider and Jennings each made clever shots from near midfloor. The visitors meet Washington and Lee to-morrow and then take on Virginia Military Institute, Virginia, Polytechnic Institute (two games) and Roanoke College To-

Self-Control Great Asset for Golfers in All Classes

"Greater," said Solomon, "is he that ruleth himself than he that taketh a city." To foosle in golf is to encourage giving up one's great soul. It is a grievous and abiding wound to the sensitive for which he invariably curses himself roundly and takes to suckeloth and ashes. When her lord returns from the links his spouse knows well by his sour dejection that he has sinned ignominiously, he who thought he was master of himself. At such times he will sangle at his best friend, even as the wrongdoer is at war with the world. Overzealousness, known in golf as pressing, by which one tries to do more than one is able, is a common and fatal fault in golf, as in all other things.
